

Occupational Therapy Compact Commission (OTCC) Administrative Policy

I. Introduction

As a joint government entity created by the enactment of the Occupational Therapy License Compact (Compact) by the member states, the Occupational Therapy Compact Commission (Commission) affords great deference to its member states in selecting OT Compact Commission Delegates (Delegates) to represent them. The diverse personal, educational, and professional backgrounds of Delegates are one of the Commission's greatest assets. However, this diversity means that some Delegates may have personal pecuniary interests which are affected by the outcomes of management and other decisions which must be made concerning the administration of the Compact Commission at times. This policy is implemented to ensure transparency, accountability, and integrity in the Commission's decision-making process.

II. Code of Conduct

Delegates and Alternate Representatives appointed by the states are responsible for upholding the integrity of the Commission and its member states. No Delegate or Alternate Representative shall engage in criminal or unethical conduct prejudicial to the Commission, any other Delegate, or any other state.

No Delegate or Alternate Representative shall vote or participate in debate upon a matter in which they have a direct or indirect financial or other personal interest resulting in a personal benefit that conflicts with the fair and impartial conduct of official duties. The Executive Committee shall have the sole authority to consider allegations of breaches of this code, including appeals from Delegates alleged to be in violation herewith. In the case of a breach, the Executive Committee may direct the Chair to notify the appropriate appointing authority in the Delegate's home state.

III. Definition

A Conflict of Interest is a set of circumstances that creates a risk that professional judgement or actions regarding a primary interest will be unduly influenced by a secondary personal interest economic or otherwise.

IV. Disclosure of Conflicts of Interest

1. All Delegates and Alternate Representatives are required to complete a Code of Conduct form (page 3). The form constitutes an agreement by each Delegate and Alternate Representative to disclose personal interests that may impact the ability of a Delegate or Alternate Representative to conduct business in a "fair and impartial" manner and that the Delegate or Alternate Representative will recuse from debating or voting on such a matter in fulfilling the duties of an OT Compact Delegate or Alternate Representative.

2. Completed Code of Conduct forms must be submitted to the OTCC Executive Director by January 31 of each year, regardless of whether there have been any changes in status from the previous year. If a Delegate or Alternate Representative is appointed after January 31, a completed Code of Conduct form must be submitted prior to participation in a Commission meeting.
3. Completed Code of Conduct forms are public documents which may be disclosed by the Commission upon request.

V. Delegate and Alternate Representative Recusal

Prior to the discussion of an issue in which a Delegate or Alternate Representative believes a conflict of interest may exist, the Delegate or Alternate Representative must announce to the Committee or Commission meeting that they are recusing themselves from participating in the caucus and voting. Once recused, the Delegate or Alternate Representative will not be able to participate in the debate or the vote concerning the matter which led to the recusal.

VI. Concerns over Financial Disclosure and Conflicts of Interest

Concerns over conflicts of interest should be brought to the attention of the Chair of the Commission for consideration by the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee will determine if any of the provisions of the Commission's Policy on Conflicts of Interest have been violated and decide the appropriate action, if any.

VII. Notification of Home State Appointing Authority

If any of the following conditions are met, the Commission may notify the appropriate appointing authority in the home state of the Delegate or Alternate Representative regarding its concern about the ability of the Delegate or Alternate Representative to perform his/her duties in a fair and impartial manner.

1. The Delegate or Alternate Representative has a substantial financial conflict of interest in the outcome of the matter, such as the awarding of a contract for services or employment;
2. The Delegate or Alternate Representative has a substantial positional conflict of interest in the outcome of the matter, such as a leadership position for another organization whose purpose is contrary to that of the Commission;
3. The Delegate or Alternate Representative has been found in violation of criminal or civil state or federal statute or regulation;
4. The Executive Committee determines that a Delegate or Alternate Representative is not performing their duties consistent with this policy.

Code of Conduct Form

Delegates or Alternate Representatives appointed by the states are responsible for upholding the integrity of the Commission and its member states. No Delegate or Alternate Representative shall engage in criminal or unethical conduct prejudicial to the Commission, any other Delegate, or any other state. No Delegate or Alternate Representative shall have a direct or indirect financial interest that conflicts with the fair and impartial conduct of official duties. The Executive Committee, in consultation with Legal Counsel to the Commission, shall have the sole authority to consider allegations of breaches of this code, including appeals from Delegates alleged to be in violation herewith. In the case of a breach, the Executive Committee may direct the Chair to notify the appropriate appointing authority in the Delegate or Alternate Representative's home state.
